THE FUTURE OF THE MOTION PICTURE

Until we stop to give it a little thought, one hardly realizes what possibilities surround the organization of the Nevada Film company.

The motion picture business is just in its infancy, and the day of the little one and two reel films is past. The present so-called western pictures are nothing short of ridiculous, and the public is tiring of scenes that are faked up in fenced pastures, and along creek banks of the east to represent the west.

We who live in the west know that great damage has been done to the mining industry and other western enterprises by the pictures that show actors picking up grain sacks full of nuggets as large as potatoes, after a few blows of a pick in a soft bank, and other false representations of mining, as well as the habitual practice of portraying robbers, hold-ups and vandalism, always as western scenes.

The Nevada Film company came into existence to fill a long felt want—that of making western pictures in the west, and to show the west as it really is. Besides making pictures for the regular releases, the Nevada Film company will be prepared to make the western and mining scenes for all other film companies. If a New York film company needs a few scenes of a play in a mining camp, they simply send their leading characters and a scene director to the Tonopah studio, where the necessary scenes will be arranged and the film made to be inserted with the rest of the film that was made in the east. It is only a matter of time until the demand for real western scenes, made in the west, will force the faked up scenes out of existence.

HOSPITALITY AT THE NEVADA BUILDING

(Special Bonanza Correspondence)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—The Nevada State building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is gaining an enviable reputation as the center of delightful hospitality under the able and charming direction of Mrs. Jewett Adams, the official hostess, and her assistant, Mrs. L. A. Gates. They have announced that they will be officially "at home" on the second and fourth Fridays of each month in the handsome state building which is so attractively situated on the Marine facing the Golden Gate.

Plans are being made for an elaborate reception on the first Thursday evening in June for the Nevada Society in California of which Dr. J. A. Haderle is the president, and at which visiting Nevadans will be entertained.

HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

(By Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM, May 18.—The German Shakespeare society held its usual annual meeting at Weimar on the last Sunday in April, but only eight delegates were present. A committee was appointed to prepare for the celebration next year of the tercentenary of the poet's death, and resolutions were passed avowing that Shakespeare belonged to Germany as much as to Great Britain. The society voted a subscription of $1500 to the German war loan.

the latest steps has been formed among the hostesses of the various state buildings, to meet each Friday night, and in response to the generous invitation of Mrs. Adams, this will be held in the beautiful ball room of the Nevada building.

A recent event of social interest was the reception given in the Nevada building by the Alumnae Association of the Bishop Whitaker School, formerly situated at Reno. This reception was given in honor of Mrs. Isaac L. Regua of Piedmont, Cal., a close friend of the late bishop. The committee in charge consisted of the following members of the alumnae: Mrs. Carrie Melly Botts, Mrs. May Clara Porter, Mrs. Ora Davidson Land, Mrs. Lulu Ludlow Leets, and Miss Mary Chester Williams. In the receiving line were: Mrs. Regua, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. L. A. Gates, and Mrs. William R. Jenvey.

olutions were passed avowing that Shakespeare belonged to Germany as much as to Great Britain. The society voted a subscription of $1500 to the German war loan.

Fortunately for Mr. Barnes of New York, he doesn't need that $50,000—Boston Transcript.

POLICEWOMEN'S WORK
TOLD IN CONVENTION

FIRST FEMALE COP IN LOS ANGELES NARRATES HER EXPERIENCES

(By Associated Press.)

BALTIMORE, May 18.—A policewoman, Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, of Los Angeles, was given close attention by a special section of the National Conference of Charities and Correction here today when she told of a policewoman's work.

For a long time past, she said, the "woman policeman" has been a figure of the imagination, held up to ridicule as the acme of the absurd and impossible, but though the last echo of derision still reverberates, there has grown a policewoman movement as great in strength and size as any recent humanitarian movement has attained in equal time.

She had found upon investigation that the United States led in this departure, for notwithstanding reports of the employment of policewomen in foreign countries she had been unable to learn that they were officially employed abroad, except in Norway, and in England in a voluntary way.

The need of women on the police force had arisen, she said, from the fact that industrial and social energy no longer centered in the home, "but has given us an age in which men, women and children eat, sleep, work and play together as never before in the world's history."

Mrs. Wells was the first policewoman in Los Angeles, the post being created upon her initiative. "I had charge of the work," she said, "and I know two things: That girls and women in trouble have a right to the sympathetic help of women officers; and that men officers have a right to exemption from what may be a constant temptation to the weak, and from enforced and unnecessary association with those who, if resentful, may cast a cloud upon the reputation of the most exemplary. The best officers are the most reluctant to undertake alone the handling of girls, and will sometimes resign in preference."
